NATIONAL CHUNG HSING UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF VETERINARY MEDICINE

Meeting Venue Usage Regulations

Amended by the College Affairs Meeting on October 17, 2024 (Articles 1 and 3)

- Article 1 The meeting venues under the College of Veterinary Medicine ("the College") of National Chung Hsing University (NCHU) are designated for academic lectures, seminars, major meetings, and teaching-related activities. Applications will be considered only if the anticipated attendance meets at least 80% of the venue's capacity. Smoking and the consumption of food or beverages are strictly prohibited within the venues. Additionally, the use of information and communication technology products manufactured by companies from mainland China is not allowed.
- Article 2 Borrowing units must submit their application using the designated form at least one week before the borrowing date. During the usage period, the borrowing unit is responsible for safeguarding all equipment and appointing a designated person to oversee its use. The borrowing unit will be liable for full compensation in case of any damage to equipment or materials.

Article 3 The fees for using the College's meeting venues will be remitted to the NCHU Endowment Fund. The venue rental fee schedule is as follows:

Building	Venue	Fee	Deposit	Capacity	Remarks
Veterinary Medicine Building	1F Audio- Visual Classroom	NT$5,000 per session	NT$1,500 per session	79 people	Session times: Morning (8:00–12:00), Afternoon
Animal Disease	B1 B1101 Lecture Hall	NT$12,000 per session	NT$3,600 per session	200 people	(13:00–17:30). Dining space: NT$4,000 per room per use (11:30–13:00).
Diagnostic Center	1F Room 108 Audio-Visual Center	NT$8,000 per session	NT$2,400 per session	80 people

- Article 4 Borrowing units must bring their approved application form and pay the fees at the NCHU Cashier Office within three days of approval. A duplicate of the payment receipt must be submitted to the College for verification and record-keeping. Failure to comply will result in the forfeiture of the venue usage rights for that instance. Fees paid are non-refundable.
- Article 5 College units and Chinese Society for Veterinary Pathology (CSVP) teaching activities must also apply under these regulations but are exempt from fees. For non-paid usage, approved applicants are responsible for independently preparing, utilizing, and maintaining all equipment, as well as restoring the venue to its original condition after use.
- Article 6 The Regulations shall be implemented upon approval by the College Affairs Meeting and the President. Any amendments shall follow the same procedure.
